Baggie Bird – Thursday 17th October

The children all enjoyed taking three penalties with the baggie bird mascot being in goal. The families did a fantastic job of sponsoring the children so they could receive prizes and we raised an incredible amount of £3764.73 for school.

Children in Need – Friday 15th November

The charity that we chose this half term was Children in Need. We took part in a wear spots day to raise money. Donations were made online.

Christmas Fayre – Wednesday 11th December

Wow, what an amazing turn out we had for this event. There were games to play, lots of craft activities, face painting and we even had Santa in his sleigh. We raised an amazing amount of £1436.14

How has the money raised been spent?

The money raised this term has provided:

- each child with a small gift from Santa
- each child with party drinks and prizes for party games
- giant lunchtime games
- Head teacher awards gift vouchers
- Not off in November gift vouchers
- extra curricular workshops

A big thank you for all of your contributions this term.

Number day – Friday 7th February

The children and staff were invited to come to school wearing numbers. The children took part in lots of maths activities. Donations were made online with money raised going to the NSPCC. We raised £151.

Pep the Poet – Thursday 28th February

The PTA paid for the lovely poet Pep to come into school. During the day all children got to have a workshop with Pep where he read and acted out his poems. The children really enjoyed the day.

ASDA Cashpot

The PTA would like to thank all of the families that added us to their ASDA cash pot. The PTA received £569.47

Sponsored Walk – Friday 11th April

All of the children and staff had a lovely afternoon walking around the grounds of the school. The children collected stamps on their card for every lap that they completed. A massive thank you to all the families that sponsored the children. We raised £2043.96.

How has the money raised been spent?

The money raised this term has provided:

- each child with a chocolate Easter treat
- an exciting day of poems by the author Pep the Poet
- March into March vouchers
- Head Teacher award vouchers
- a dance workshop for all children

A big thank you for all of your contributions this term.
